

I am opposed to any FCC ruling overturning the NJ Do Not Call statutes. It is great not receiving telephone calls from a bunch of telemarketers who only want to take my money. Even now I still receive some calls which I would gladly stop if possible.